OUR SPRING OPENING-the event of the season-will occur to-morrow, Monday. The near approach of Easter-only three weeks away-will make this event of more than ordinary interest-and not only the Millinery and Cloak Departments, but the entire store will participate. The floral display will be lavish. Music will be turnished by Maurice Spyer's string quintette. The store in spring array will be a sight worth seeing. No cards are issued. All are cordially invited.

Spring Millinery.

An exhibit unparalleled in the annals of this great house -a rich, elaborate, comprehensive showing of all that's new and charming in millinery creations. If you admire beaut ful hats (and of course you do), you'll find this an artistic treat- a feast for the eyesan education in correct styles for the spring of 1901.

The greatest milliners of Paris-Mme Michniewicz-Turee, Mon. Virot, Linn Faulkner, Ester Meyer, Madam Carlier and Camille Roger, are represented by some of their most exquisite pattern hats -while our own corps of skilled milliners have produced hundreds of delightfu creations that deserve to rank with the most elaborate affairs from across the seas. The imported pattern hats will be offered at $10 to $25-about half what other stores would ask for equal elegance. Our policy opposes exorbitant prices or these creations just as strenuously as it opposes exorbitant profits on our own
